

BOUNTY OF THE BARRENS MARKET

The purpose of the Bounty of the Barrens Market (BOTBM), operated by Sustainable Glasgow, Inc. is to promote the development of diversified family-size farms in our region. We intend to provide an attractive environment for the sale of locally grown produce, locally produced food products, and Kentucky crafts. We aim to create a community of educated consumers who understand the value of local, diversified food production for our health, our economy, and our environment.

RULES AND REGULATIONS

- A. All guidelines for this market are intended to promote the purposes outlined above.
- B. Participation (membership) in the Market is subject to the completion of a Vendor Application and approval by the Farmer's Market Committee (FMC).
- C. The application process will include a farm visit by members of FMC. The FMC reserves the right to visit member farms at any time without prior notice.
- D. Vendors are required to pay a $50 market membership fee. A $10 booth fee shall be paid each day vendors set up at the market.
- E. There are forty-two 10x10 spaces available. Based on availability, vendors will be assigned a space for the season but may be moved if deemed necessary by the FMC
- F. All vendors are required to use a white 10x10 canopy. Each vendor shall be responsible for securing the canopies and preventing damage to the surrounding property, or injury to other members or market patrons. Sufficient ballast and care shall be added to each member/vendor location such that canopies do not become projectiles.
- G. Each vendor shall be responsible for maintaining a clean and attractive market area and showing respect for the beautiful environment made available by Barren County Fiscal Court. At the end of each market day the spaces shall be left as clean and/or cleaner than they were found.
- H. All produce, agricultural products, and horticultural products must have been grown or produced by the vendor. Any vendor who does not meet the producer only rules will be allowed only on a case by case basis as approved by the FMC. Any vendor offering a CSA may include up to two items that they or another BOTBM vendor don't produce themselves.
- I. If you would like to sell additional items other than what is listed on your application, you must submit a request to the BOTB Farmers Market Committee in writing. The Committee will reply to your request within two weeks of receipt.
- J. Processed food items must be produced under the regulations of HB 391 or come from a licensed commercial kitchen. All vendors must possess, and provide to BOTBM, Kentucky Dept. of Agriculture certification for each class of products (if regulated by KDA) and meet all KDA standards for the handling of eggs, meat, milk and value-added products.

- K. Any vendor who sells products by weight, must do so using weighing systems approved and certified by KDA.
- L. Individual vendors set the price for their products.
- M. Market days and opening date will be set annually by FMC.
- N. Hours of operation will be determined by the FMC. No selling will be permitted before 8am opening of market.
- O. Vendor's identification should be prominently displayed.
- P. The Vendor shall indemnify, defend, and hold harmless Sustainable Glasgow, Inc., and Barren County Fiscal Court and each listed entity's respective officers, directors, partners, agents, members and employees from and against any and all demands, claims, damages to persons or property, losses and liabilities including reasonable attorneys' fees (collectively "Claims") arising out of or caused by the Vendor's employees, agents and others acting on its behalf, negligence in connection with the provision of services or goods of the Vendor. The Vendor shall not have waived or be deemed to have waived, by reason of this paragraph, any defense, which it may have with respect to such Claims.
- Q. Any vendor whose behavior is deemed detrimental to the goals of the market may be asked to leave by the FMC, whose decisions shall be final.
- R. Sustainable Glasgow, Inc. and BOTBM, through its Market Manager, Board, and FMC, reserves the right to interpret these rules and regulations, waive any technicalities, and make any decisions relative to the operation of the market that, solely in the opinion of the Board and Manager, best suit the overall purpose of BOTBM as stated above. All decisions by the Board and Market Manager, relative to the operation of BOTBM, are final and immediately applicable to all vendors.
- S. White canopy tents may be rented from Sustainable Glasgow (if available) for $10.00 per day for a maximum of two market days per year.

BOUNTY OF THE BARRENS FARMER'S MARKET COMMITTEE

- A. The FMC shall consist of 5 vendors plus the Market Manager.
- B. The 2020 Farmers' Market Committee is Jacqueline Berry, Linda Lewis, Tiffany Gillespie, Sarah Shirley, and Josh Johnson (Market Manager).
